Substitute Senate Bill No. 389

Senate, March 23, 2004

The Committee on Government Administration and Elections reported through SEN. DEFRONZO of the 6th Dist., Chairperson of the Committee on the part of the Senate, that the substitute bill ought to pass.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING REFERENDUM CONTESTS AND COMPLAINTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2004) Any person (1) claiming to 2 have been aggrieved by any ruling of any election official in 3 connection with a referendum, (2) claiming that there has been a 4 mistake in the count of votes cast for a referendum, or (3) claiming to 5 be aggrieved by a violation of any provision of section 9-355, 9-357 to 6 9-361, inclusive, as amended, 9-364, 9-364a or 9-365 of the general
7 statutes in the casting of absentee ballots at a referendum, may bring a 8 complaint to any judge of the Superior Court for relief from such 9 ruling, mistake or violation. In any action brought pursuant to the 10 provisions of this section, the complainant shall send a copy of the 11 complaint by first class mail, or deliver a copy of the complaint by 12 hand, to the State Elections Enforcement Commission. If such 13 complaint is made prior to such referendum, such judge shall proceed

14 expeditiously to render judgment on the complaint and shall cause 15 notice of the hearing to be given to the Secretary of the State and the 16 State Elections Enforcement Commission. If such complaint is made 17 subsequent to such referendum, it shall be brought within thirty days 18 after such referendum to any judge of the Superior Court, in which the 19 person shall set out the claimed errors of the election official, the 20 claimed errors in the count or the claimed violations of said sections.
21 Such judge shall forthwith order a hearing to be held upon such 22 complaint, upon a day not more than five nor less than three days 23 from the making of such order, and shall cause notice of not less than 24 three nor more than five days to be given to any person who may be 25 affected by the decision upon such hearing, to such election official, the 26 Secretary of the State, the State Elections Enforcement Commission and 27 to any other party or parties whom such judge deems proper parties to 28 the hearing, of the time and place for the hearing upon such complaint.
29 Such judge shall, on the day fixed for such hearing and without 30 unnecessary delay, proceed to hear the parties. If sufficient reason is 31 shown, such judge may order any voting machines to be unlocked or 32 any ballot boxes to be opened and a recount of the votes cast, including 33 absentee ballots, to be made. Such judge shall, if such judge finds any 34 error in the rulings of the election official or any mistake in the count 35 of the votes, certify the result of such judge's finding or decision to the 36 Secretary of the State before the tenth day succeeding the conclusion of 37 the hearing. Such judge may order a new referendum or a change in 38 the existing referendum schedule. Such certificate of such judge's
39 finding or decision shall be final and conclusive upon all questions 40 relating to errors in the ruling of such election officials, to the 41 correctness of such count, and, for the purposes of this section only, 42 such claimed violations, and shall operate to correct the returns of the 43 moderators or presiding officers, so as to conform to such finding or 44 decision, except that this section shall not affect the right of appeal to 45 the Supreme Court and it shall not prevent such judge from reserving
46 such questions of law for the advice of the Supreme Court as provided 47 in section 9-325 of the general statutes. Such judge may, if necessary, 48 issue a writ of mandamus, requiring the adverse party and those

49 under such judge to deliver to the complainant the appurtenances of 50 such office, and shall cause such judge's finding and decree to be 51 entered on the records of the Superior Court in the proper judicial 52 district.

This act shall take effect as follows:

Explanation

This bill establishes a statutory right to bring a complaint to Superior Court within 30 days of a referendum when a person claims to have been aggrieved in connection with the referendum.

Any person may bring a complaint under current law when they are aggrieved in connection with a referendum. It is uncertain if specifying a person's right to bring a complaint in statute would affect the caseload of the Superior Court. Any potential impact is anticipated to be minor, however, and could be accommodated without additional appropriations to the Judicial Department.

As a result of this bill, the State Elections Enforcement Commission may incur a workload increase, which will not require additional funding.

Municipal Impact

This bill may result in a potential cost to municipalities. Under the bill, if sufficient reason is shown, a Superior Court judge may order a new referendum. The extent to which specifying the court's authority in statute would increase the likelihood that new referenda would be ordered is unknown. The cost to municipalities to hold a referendum varies by town population. Small towns, such as Andover and Bethany, can hold a referendum for $1,000 to $2,500. Large cities, such as Bridgeport and Stamford, can hold a referendum for approximately $50,000 to $70,000.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING REFERENDUM CONTESTS AND COMPLAINTSSUMMARY:

This bill creates a statutory right to bring a complaint when anyone claims, in connection with a referendum, (1) a mistake in the vote count or (2) to have been aggrieved by an election official's ruling or a violation of prohibited acts concerning absentee voting.

A person may file a complaint with any Superior Court judge following the bill's procedures, which are similar to those available for contests and complaints in an election for public office. If the complaint is filed before the referendum, the judge must proceed "expeditiously." Otherwise, the person has 30 days after the referendum to bring a complaint. After a hearing with all affected parties, the judge has 10 days to issue a decision in cases where he finds an error. He can order a recount, a new referendum, or a change in the referendum schedule. His finding or decision is final.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

After filing the complaint with a judge, the complainant must send or deliver a copy of it to the State Elections Enforcement Commission (SEEC). When the complaint is filed before the referendum takes place, the judge must give the secretary of the state and the SEEC notice of any hearing held regarding it and render judgment expeditiously.

A complaint made after the referendum must be brought to a judge within 30 days after the referendum. The judge must order a hearing to take place from three to five days later, giving three to five days' notice to the election official who is the subject of the complaint, the secretary, the SEEC, and any other affected parties.

If sufficient reason is shown at the hearing, the judge may order a recount. The judge has 10 days after the hearing to certify his ruling to the secretary of the state if he finds any error in an election official's ruling or mistake in the vote count. (If voting machines are used at a referendum, the moderator locks and seals them when the count is completed. By law, they remain locked, but only for 14 days unless the SEEC issues an order or there is a recanvass in case of a discrepancy, in which case, they stay locked for a longer period. Under the bill's provision allowing a complaint up to 30 days after a referendum, the machines may have already been unlocked and cleared by the time a complaint is filed.) The judge may order a new referendum or a change in the existing referendum schedule.

The judge's ruling is final and conclusive on the questions relating to the complaint. The referendum returns must be corrected to conform to the ruling. If a question of law is raised at the hearing that any party claims needs Supreme Court review, the judge must transmit it to the chief justice, who must call a special session of the Court to hear the question immediately.

If necessary, the Superior Court judge may issue a writ of mandamus to enforce his order and enter his finding and decree in the Superior Court records.
